Pleasant walk starting from Upper Pollicott, to the South of Ashendon.

Keep left on this path, descending very gently to cross a stream and skirt a copse. Then as the road starts to climb again, look for a right turn onto a track, before you reach the Winchenden road.

Turn right again onto Chilton Road and cross the railway track. Just afterwards, turn left onto a path and keep left to cross fields and come back across the railway.

After this it is one straight path back to Upper Pollicott and Ashendon.
