

Would you like to be a WI member?

Ever thought of starting a group?

The National Federation of Women's Institutes (NFWI) is the largest voluntary organisation for women in the UK.

It enables members to explore a wide range of experiences, knowledge and skills.

Interested?

For more information about what having a WI might do for your community please contact:

